VIRTUAL STUDENT FOREIGN SERVICE

V S F S

Project Title	Ukraine Renewable Energy Intern
Project Summary	If you think you can improve the transition from a fossil fuel dependent economy to green and clean energy, then we'd love to hear your innovative ideas as the Renewable Energy Virtual Intern at U.S. Embassy Kyiv!
Country	Ukraine
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	N/A
Post	KYIV
Section	ECON
Number of Interns	1

Project Description

U.S. Embassy Kyiv's Economic Section is looking for an intern to conduct research on legislation, government policy, and investment climate for increased renewable energy in Ukraine. The intern will have the opportunity to draft policy papers, create fact sheets and talking points, and complete other written research documents covering the renewable energy sector. This internship is perfect for students interested in the intersection between energy and government policy. You'll also get feedback on how to write effectively for U.S. government audiences, a better idea about how U.S. foreign policy is formed and shaped, and an enthusiastic supervisor who will talk your ear off about careers in international affairs with the U.S. government.
